592. [WILDE, O.] Oscar Wilde: Three Times Tried. 2 vols., 8vo, half blue levant morocco, gilt backs, gilt tops. Paris: Privately Printed, n.d.

ONE OF 999 COPIES. The verbatim reports of the three trials of Oscar Wilde.

593. WILDE, OSCAR. A.L.s., 3 pp., 8vo, about 85 words. "Hotel de Nice, rue des Beaux Arts, Paris, Thursday Morning."

The letter is addressed to "My dear Malcolm" stating that "The play has given me great satisfaction . . . If you could manage to let me have but £3 I should be glad".

594. [WILDE, OSCAR.] Eight A.L.s.s. by Robert Ross. In all 21 pp., 12mo and 4to. All addressed to Leonard Smithers, the publisher. In a morocco-backed slip case.

A REVEALING CORRESPONDENCE from Ross to Wilde's publisher. They are mostly concerned with Wilde and his difficulties. One reads in part: "I regret to inform you that I have ceased to be on intimate terms with Oscar Wilde or to enjoy his confidence in business or any other matter . . ." Another reads: "I have had a fearful letter from poor Oscar who seems in a dreadful state of poverty . . . If you could sell the 'Rejane' for me at once and send Oscar £5 as soon as possible . . ."

595. WILDE, OSCAR. Poems. 8vo, original vellum, gilt top, uncut. In a cloth slip case. London, 1881

FIRST EDITION. Presentation copy from the author, inscribed on the half-title: "To Frank Miles, in art and friendship noble and sincere, from the author. July 1881." With the bookplate of F. Miles.

596. WILDE, OSCAR. A.L.s. 4 pp., 8vo, about 140 words. Boston, 188[2]. To John Boyle O'Reilly.

AN INTERESTING LETTER REGARDING THE PUBLICATION OF LADY WILDE'S POEMS. Reads in part: "I think my mother's work should make a great success here—it is so unlike the work of her degenerate son . . ."

597. WILDE, OSCAR. The Happy Prince and Other Tales. Illustrations by Walter Crane and J. Hood. Folio, original parchment boards; rubbed, slightly soiled. London, 1888

FIRST EDITION. ONE OF 75 COPIES ON LARGE PAPER, signed by the author and the publisher.

598. WILHELM II, QUEEN HERMINE and CROWN PRINCE WILHELM. A.L.s. 41 pages, 8vo and 4to, about 2,000 words in ink and tipped to heavy sheets. The whole bound into a 4to volume, full crimson levant morocco, gilt, with emblematic tooling, gilt; doublures of black morocco, white watered silk end-leaves. In a cloth slip case. Doorn, and other places, 1922-5

AN EXTREMELY INTERESTING CORRESPONDENCE among three of the exiled royal family of Germany and an American friend, Miss Sylvia Cushman of Boston. While some of the letters contain much of a personal nature, the correspondence, in the main, indicates the vast bitterness with which the Kaiser viewed America's part in the war and in his defeat. A portion of these letters was used in a feature article in the New York Times Magazine section for July 12, 1925, but they apparently were not published entirely. Accompanied by transcripts of the original letters, which were written in English, and by four autograph post cards, two of which are from Wilhelm, and contain a length diatribe against President Wilson.
